() Land use activity is defined as acreage subject to clearing, grubbing, grading, paving, road and driveway construction, landscaping or mining that may or may not contain buildings or structures.

() Gross floor area includes the sum of each floor level intended for occupancy or storage as measured by the outside dimensions of the building at each floor level.

Section 7.10 Planning Board Action on Site Plan

Expiration of approval: Unless otherwise specified or extended by the Planning Board, a decision on any site plan review shall expire if;

1. The applicant fails to undertake the proposed action or project, or
2. Fails to obtain any necessary building permits, within one year from the filing date of this decision. A Site Plan Review Decision may be renewed upon application by the Applicant, payment of any applicable fee and approval of the application by the Planning Board.

Fee for renewal of a previously approved site plan that has not yet expired will be 50% of the original application provided there are no changes to the land use activity or gross floor area. Once a permit has expired there is no renewal option. A full fee based on the prevailing schedule will be required along with a new application.

Fee for amendment of any non-expired detailed preliminary plan submitted to the Planning Board shall be assessed a new sketch fee for minor amendments and/or 50% of the preliminary fee for major amendments as determined by the Planning Board. Section 7.11 also applies to any amendment request.

Section 7.11 Reimbursable Costs

Costs incurred by the Planning Board for consultation fees, staff review costs, or other expenses in connection with the review of a detailed site plan application shall be charged to the Applicant.

The Planning Board may require the posting of financial security in the form of cash, bank check or such other form acceptable to the Town Planning Attorney in order to ensure that reimbursements and/or improvements are carried out as specified in the plans and approvals.
